Guidelines for Writing Student Papers Using American Psychological Association Style

John Smith
National University
Professor Brown
English 100
January 1, 2014

Page Formatting Requirements

- The above text should be double spaced (2.0 spacing) and centered.
- Use a 12-point Times Roman font for all text on this page.
- Do not bold face, italicize, underline or put any text in quotation marks (except where quotation marks are required, i.e., article titles) or ALL CAPS (except for acronyms).
- Margins should be 1 inch on all sides.
- Do not put any other text on this page. Do not put anything in the Footer area.
- The APA title page should be the first page in your Word document. Start your paper on a new page after the APA title page.

See sample APA title page below

Note: This is a modified APA title page often used for college classes. The professor, class and date are NOT included in the APA Manual’s title page. Check with your professor to see if he/she wants these additions.
Guidelines for Writing Student Papers Using American Psychological Association Style

John Smith
National University
Professor Brown
English 100
January 1, 2014